great{with}talent’s products, services and management tools are all delivered in an online format. In some organisations, mechanisms exist to filter email and restrict employee’s web browser access to web sites. This factsheet provides you and your IT departments with the information needed to “whitelist” our applications, therefore enabling the roll-out of our services into your organisation.

This fact sheet should also be read in conjunction with great{with}talent’s Security Statement.
